Does the Hon'ble Minister wish to make any statement?

Sri Kadidal MANJAPPA (Minister for Revenue and Public Works).—Sales tax is an important item of income. It was levied for the first time in 1948. Whether we like it or not, it has come to stay with us. As the Hon'ble Members are aware, businessmen were urging for the modification of certain provisions in the Sales Tax Act. In order to satisfy their demand, a Committee was constituted under my chairmanship and in accordance with the report of the Committee, a Bill had been placed to amend the Sales Tax Act. The Bill which was passed by this House has received the assent of the President. It will come into effect from the first of April 1955. The main provisions of this Bill are that it provides for the levy of tax at a single point on about 35 commodities. Most of the articles which have been declared by the Parliament to be essential to the life of the community have been exempted under the provisions of the amending Act. In regard to the other commodities, a slab basis has been adopted for computing the turnover and fixing the tax thereon. During the current year, a new circle has been formed to deal with non-resident dealers. I may also add that we are likely to get a few lakhs of rupees more than the expected revenue. There are 139 revision petitions entertained during the year. The Government have disposed of 76 petitions so far, leaving a balance of 63 revision petitions. In accordance with the recommendation of the Sales Tax Committee, the Government is proposing to introduce a Bill to further amend the Sales Tax Act to constitute an appellate tribunal.
